

Advancement for Women is Still Slower Than for Men

12:00 pm - 1:30pm , Wednesday, June 14, 2006
Conrad B, Hilton Minneapolis Hotel – Lunch Provided

Organized by: Anna Maria Pardon, Chair, CSS Women in Control Standing Committee
Bozenna Pasik-Duncan, CSS Liaison, IEEE Women in Control Committee

Speaker:

Bozenna Pasik-Duncan

Advancement for Women is Still Slower Than for Men

Abstract?

The presentation is based on the following research:

Alice Hogan and Fahmida Chowdhury	NSF ADVANCE Funding Trends, private communication.
Keyana N. Tennant	IEEE WIE Funding Trends.
Virginia Vilian	“Why so slow?”, The MIT Press, Cambridge MA & London, 1998.
Dominique Duncan	“Difference Between the Two Sexes in Academia”, Presentation in Democracy and Social Sciences, University of Chicago, May 10, 2006.
Elena Zattoni and Anna Maria Perdon	“How Can We Speed Up the Process? Does International Funding/Exchange Programs Help with Advancement for Women?”.

European Women in Control Awareness of Selected and Successful Programs.
American and Other Programs will be discussed.

Open Discussion.